Asthma
Himrod's Cure

The discoverer of Himrod's Cure was for twelve years a great sufferer with that terrible disease, Asthma, and for the past nine years wholly unable to engage in active business. After using every remedy that was offered to the public, receiving generally but little benefit, and in no case more than partial and temporary relief, he finally resolved upon a thorough personal investigation into the peculiarities of a disease which has forever baffled the best medical skill, and a series of experiments with a view to the production of an article which would prove to be an effectual cure.

After many trials and failures, he at last succeeded in bringing together the combination which is now offered to the public with the fullest confidence in its value as a cure. It has been thoroughly tested in many of the worst cases, and all conversant with its merits unite in awarding to it the most unqualified praise.

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1880.

ELECTORAL TRIUMPH.

The result of the scrutiny of the March elections by the Provincial Chambers is one which the peace-loving section of the community hails with unmixed satisfaction, although its motives for so receiving the verdict are, we should say, widely different from those of the exulting political party which obtained it. For two months past the dread of a serious disturbance on the occasion that has now passed so quietly hung over the population like a cloud; but, as usual with most River Plate political clouds, there was no thunder or lightning in its depths, and the fancied danger is proved to have been no danger at all. But aside from this, the decision of the scrutineers will relieve this country from the opprobrium of seeing the Governor and the Legislature of its richest and most influential province in never-ending feud. This will now cease, and on such a consummation the public must be congratulated, although the means by which it has been brought about would hardly bear much probing.

In spite of the too numerous opportunities afforded for that practice which is said to ensure perfection, electioneering in the River Plate is as yet, from an artistic point of view, in a very crude state: the machinery is so coarse and the wires are so exposed to public view, that the æsthetic sense is often shocked in seeing them at work. The March elections were no exception to the rule; they were racy of the soil; but the scrutineers have clearly only done their duty in accepting them. Had the hopes of the opposition party been realized and the voting declared null and void, the sea of political troubles on which we have been tossing for two years past would possibly have been lashed to mountain height and have buried for a time those institutions the excellence of which cannot be questioned, although in practice their fundamental theory is rarely held to. It is to be hoped that Congress, when it comes to scrutinize the Presidential election, will take a leaf from the Provincial book, and decide solely in accordance with the evidence before it. Indeed, it is a foregone conclusion that it will do so

The scene in the Provincial Chamber of Deputies on Wednesday last was, probably, the most exciting ever witnessed within its walls. The 'barra' was crowded to its utmost capacity with the 'golden youth' of Buenos Ayres, nearly all members of the Tiro Nacional and Bomberos. An aristocratic order and decorum worthy of the British House of Peers reigned amongst these select spectators: and one shabby looking party who had somehow obtained admittance, and who once or twice attempted to raise his voice, was summarily ejected. In the patios and out in the street the crowds were packed like herrings in a barrel. At 2 o'clock precisely Dr. Bernard Irigoyen, President of the Chamber of Deputies, entered the hall, but it was 3 o'clock before business began. Deputy Hector Varela being the only member of the 'Comision de Poderes' present, the President named Deputies Bermejo, Araujo, Diana, and Benigno Carril to fill it up, and these gentlemen then took their seats at the short hand writers' table and ordered the registers to be brought in.

For two long hours the six scrutineers stuck manfully to their work. The hum of conversation in the 'barra' and the buzz of the noisy crowd in the streets were the only sounds. A 4 o'clock the arrival of Dr. Alem and other Deputies caused a slight stir. At 5 o'clock the scrutineers had finished their work, but the House did not resume till seven o'clock, when the tug of war began. Deputy Bermejo then rose and read the following lists as those approved by the Committee:—

For Third Section Deputies—
Dr. D. Jose M Cantilo
" " Antonio F Obligado
" " Faustino Alsina
" " Jose M Moreno
" " Eliseo Acevedo
" " Juan B Martinez.

For Fourth Section Deputies—
Dr. D. Carlos Basabilvaso
" " Juan Carballido
" " Federico Soarez
" " Manuel Sanabria (hijo)
" " Agustin Casa
" " Marcelino Davel

For Fifth Section Deputies—
Dr. D. Benigno del Carril
" " Florencio Garrigos
" " Benito Orisol
" " Oscar Liliedal
" " Adolfo Videla
" " Felipe Aristegui.

The honourable Deputy referred in eloquent terms to his conviction that by raising the moral tone of the Chamber purity of suffrage would be secured (Great Cheers) and he declared his belief that the elections were perfectly legal: the only Section the Committee had any suspicion of was the sixth, and they had not decided on that yet. In the name of the Committee he recommended to the House the approval of the elections (Cheers).

Deputy Alem then rose and in one the of finest speeches he has ever made, denounced the elections in impassioned terms, calling on the House to throw them out and thereby vindicate the right of the people to free suffrage.

Deputies Hector Varela and Cantilo spoke in succession in defence of the Committee's report, and Deputy L. V. Lopez replied to them in a vigorous and logical speech.

The House then divided 'en general,' with the result of 23 Ayes against 15 Noes. Meanwhile Deputy Enciso entered the Chamber, and when a division 'en particular' was taken, the votes were 23 Ayes to 16 Noes.

The dense crowd in the galleries then gave vent to their long pent-up feelings, and the cheering for the Governor, for Conciliation, for Buenos Ayres etc. was so tremendous that it must have been heard at Tandil, and probably made the Rocking-stone vibrate with electoral glee. In ten minutes the Parliament House was empty, and the immense crowd, cheering madly, rushed off to the Colon Theatre, where Governor Tejedor was attending a benefit for the purchase of powder and ball for the Patricios Volunteers. H.E came to the door of the theatre, made a brief speech and then returned to his box. The enthusiasm of the crowd then took another direction and they went to the Nacion office, to interview General Mitre, who came to the hall door and addressed his visitors in his usual eloquent style. A visit to the Club Argentino, where more cheers and speeches were let off, wound up this very exciting day.

Whatever danger some people affect to see in Governor Tejedor's having a Chamber that it is feared may back him through thick and thin in the present political emergency, the new state of parties in the Provincial Parliament ought to be beneficial to the public interests. Although the Executive and the Legislature will still, doubtless, be obliged to devote much of their time to party politics, they will have to spare, for the public service, the hours formerly employed in undignified squabbling. The list of public matters requiring prompt attention is very long, City Improvements and protection for life and property in the camp being the most pressing.

The Iberia's Mails.

London, March 26th.

Lord Hartington, speaking at Padiham last night, again criticised the foreign policy of the Government and took occasion to point out the respects in which the policy of the Opposition, if returned to power, would differ from that of her Majesty's present advisers. They would not stake the interests or the honour of England on the maintenance of the independence and integrity of an unreformed Turkish Government; they would not treat the relations of the Turkish Government with its Christian subjects as a matter of interest only to Russia and Turkey, and one we had no call to interfere in except so far as certain definite interests of our own were concerned; they would not try to disturb the concert of Europe if it was united as to what should be done; but, on the contrary, they would strive to do their utmost to promote the concert, and, if it should again be happily established, they would do all that lay in their power to carry its resolves into execution.

Sir William Harcourt addressed a large meeting at Oxford last evening, Mr Chitty speaking at an overflow meeting in the Town Hall. Sir William Harcourt said that the two political parties must be judged by the past, and that if Tory principles had long prevailed in England, it would soon have been the dearest country in the world.

Sir H. James addressed a crowded meeting of Liberal electors last night at Taunton, principally upon the Burials Bill of Mr. Osborne Morgan. He said all the Liberal Churchmen, and members of the Liberal party who were Churchmen, felt that there should be perfect equality between all sects and creeds.

The Liberal candidates for Westminster were received with great enthusiasm by a mass meeting in St. James's Hall last night. Mr. Plimsoll had been announced to preside, but he sent a letter stating that, having incurred the animosity of the Carlton Club, he was forced to remain at Derby to fight the battle of Liberalism there.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, in addressing a meeting at Barnstaple yesterday, spoke in justification of the financial and foreign policy of the Government. Speaking of finance, he characterised the outcry of postponed obligations as nonsense, and maintained the wisdom of paying bills by a means which rendered a resort to oppressive taxation unnecessary. He described Mr. Gladstone's statements of the Budget of 1880 as a series of exaggerations and shabby perversions.

A special telegram from our Correspondent at Lahore states that the First Brigade leaves Candahar for Ghuznee on Monday, and the Second Brigade on Tuesday.

Our St. Petersburg Correspondent telegraphs that the gendarmerie of the provinces, which has hitherto been under the exclusive orders of the Third Section, is not to be subordinated to the Supreme Commission, but is to be placed under the local governors.

Her Majesty, accompanied by Princess Beatrice, left Windsor Castle yesterday morning for Germany.

Yesterday the Empress Eugénie left Chiselhurst for Southampton, and embarked for Natal in the Union Company's steamer German.

In the second week of March the total number of paupers in the metropolis was 92,185, of whom 47,662 were in the workhouses, and 44,523 received out-door relief. Compared with the corresponding weeks in 1879, 1878, and 1877, these figures show an increase of 2,856, 7,001, and 6,235 respectively.

In the Queen's Bench Division yesterday the trial of the action brought by the Lords of the Admiralty against Dunn and others, with reference to arrangements for the purchase of a vessel, was concluded. Mr Justice Field having summed up, the jury, after consulting for nearly an hour, returned a verdict for the defendants.

The Telegraphs gives, as from a private correspondent at Rome, a telegram, dated March 25, affirming that the Duke of Genoa will be married to the Princess Beatrice of England at Monza, in Italy, in the latter part of May.

It is officially announced this evening that the Queen of the Netherlands is 'enceinte.'

The confirmation of Princess Victoria and Princess Elizabeth of Hesse, which will take place at Darmstadt at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 31st inst, will be attended by Queen Victoria, the Princess Beatrice, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the German Crown Prince, and the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden.

It is announced in one of this evening's newspapers that the Princess Louise has entirely recovered from the effects of her recent accident, but that she will not appear for some time in public.

According to intelligence received from St. Petersburg, the Emperor, at a military parade on Sunday last, was very friendly with the British Ambassador, Lord Dufferin, shaking hands with him and others, but only gave a cold military salute to Gen. Chanzy, the Ambassador of France.

The Grand Duke of Hesse is suffering from a feverish cold, and is confined to his bed.

The stock markets yesterday were quiet, but firm. In the speculative departments the feature was a rise in Grand Trunk of Canada securities. Consols were unchanged.

MONTEVIDEO.

The Press, now free, is preaching sweeping reforms in all branches of the Government. A great discussion is being carried on about the Tribunal, which, either silently or openly approved of all Latorre's arbitrary acts. The editors, under a constitutional Government, are no longer afraid of freely asserting what they think.

Reform is evidently necessary in many of the camp departments, where the Jefes Politicos have ruled at their pleasure. Some of the papers are publishing some most brutal cases of assault, committed by military men and Comisarios in the Departments, and the Government is much pushed to change the Jefes Politicos of Latorre's Government. The treatment of one poor Frenchman in Minas is truly shocking.

One evening paper is very much tickled at General Sarmiento's and Don Juan Carlos Gomez's views of the qualities of Orientals to constitute a nation. Our colleague says that the last fifty years of Constitutional Government is an eloquent proof of their standing as a nation in the face of the world. The dictatorship is included in this span of fifty years, which make up the most wonderful history of domestic and foreign broils ever any nation boasted of. Fifty years of struggle for liberty, which has at last been achieved in the present shape of Government.

All the political exiles are flocking to the Republic, and Caraballo has been excused for his recent attempt, at the head of 50 men, to save the institutions of the country, which, according to some newspapers, had been ruined by Ex-President Latorre.

Several rumours have been flying about the late events in Buenos Ayres. Nobody is surprised, and all wonder nothing worse has happened. The Coliseum scandal, when General Sarmiento made his fine speech, was the prelude of all that has subsequently happened. As long as bodies of armed men, formed for political purposes, are allowed to parade the streets of a city, none need be astonished at the results. In any large city in Europe there would be fights every day, and the good conduct of the Buenos Ayres volunteers under the circumstances has been the talk of all circles.

There is no end of merriment here, owing to your many flag 'benedictions.' It is thought that all the regiments of the line will have to pass through the agreeable ordeal of a 'carne con cuero' and flattering speeches. General Sarmiento eclipsed himself when haranguing the 11th of the Line.

The new Government meets with the support of all. There is a sense of relief in all circles since the present Government rules the country. Measures succeed measures, which amply testify the working power and good will of all to help the country and satisfy the constitutional and republican aspirations of a population tired of the iron rule and speedy measures of the late administration.

The 19th inst. was the anniversary of the landing of the thirty-three patriots in 1825; a reminiscence dear to all Orientals. The Arenal Grande is the most historic spot in the country.

The Bien Publico is going through the fire for supporting and defending the Tribunal of the Latorre Government, and the Diario del Comercio is unsparing in its epithets. Some way or another the former always takes the wrong side of every question, and its reasoning sounds hollow and theological. The tone of the press in general is quiet and reasonable, proving a contrast with the gunpowder articles on your side of the river.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mails by the Pacific Company's steamer Iberia were delivered yesterday. The latest London date is the 26th inst., and we have to thank our very active friend and subscriber, Mr. Burton, the well known news agent, for supplying us with the very latest papers: Mr. Burton, although but a short time in business, is pushing his way rapidly, and is already far dearer to us than his highly esteemed predecessors 'dear Daws' and 'dearest May.' There is nothing very startling in the news from the Old World. Her Majesty the Queen has gone to Germany and the Empress Eugenie to Zululand. Mr. Parnell has returned to Ireland from the United States. Prince Bismarck publicly declared on the Emperor William's birthday that there would be no war this year in Europe. His Highness is a good authority on this subject. Things again look ugly in Afghanistan and Turkestan: Russian finger in the pie very visible. The Emperor William wrote to the Czar stating that he will never sanction a war against Russia, and, as he will soon die, that he will make his son pledge his word of honour to the same policy while the Czar Alexander lives.

The Pacific Steam Navigation Company's splendid liner Araucania sails this afternoon for England. We wish Captain Brisbane and his passengers a pleasant voyage to 'Dulce Domum,' they will reach Europe just as summer will be budding.

The city was in an uproar of electioneering delirium on Wednesday night owing to the triumph of the Tejedorista party in the Chambers. People say there would have been an appalling row if the elections had been upset. There 'would have been' always waits upon 'there wasn't' in these regions.

The Havas telegram announcing the capture of Ghuzni by the Afghans is not relished. This war is one of the pins and needles with which the Tory party have so plentifully besprinkled the Treasury benches for the benefit of their successors. The circular of the French Foreign Minister to the Ambassadors of that country is translated by many as: 'there's a royal row brewing amongst all our neighbours, but let us keep out of it.'

The Plate will soon have a visit from one of the Russian Princes. H. I. H. has arrived at Bahia, on board an Imperial frigate.

News received from Villa Urquiza speaks in the following expressive terms of the misery felt there:—'Meat is worth 12 rls. the arrobe, flour is in the clouds, and the harvest of beans, maize and pumpkins has been small.' We should say that even a bad imitation of a good dinner costs 'mucho plata' in the village of Urquiza just now.

The recent rise in all National securities on the Bolsa is now fully explained. The total revenue of the Argentine Republic last year exceeded twenty-one millions of hard dollars! This is the largest revenue the nation has ever known, 1873, hitherto its 'great year,' having only produced 20 millions. The politicians may as well give up the game: they cannot ruin the country, whose progress is invincible. 'Vive la Republique!'

Tramway rails are now being laid down on the old passenger mole. Few will refuse to pay one paper dollar for riding to the end of it, as, although the Hole has disappeared, there are several shaky places along it which might easily develop into traps for breaking legs and necks.

The Rivadavia Centenary Committee have discovered that they cannot change the name of Plaza Lorea, as they proposed. Many years ago an eccentric old gentleman named Lorea bequeathed the ground to the Municipality on condition that it was to bear his name, and if ever another name were bestowed on it, it was to go back to his family.

The Ayacucho extension of the Southern Railway has now almost reached the little town of Maipu. Paso del Vecino, the most difficult point on the new line, has been successfully passed, and the rest of the way is all plain sailing.

Further telegrams from Chile say, that in the fight at Sama the Chilian cavalry took the Peruvians by surprise and literally cut them to pieces. Bombardment of Callao not commenced yet.

The funeral service at the Cathedral to-morrow in memory of the late General Rivas will be an imposing spectacle. The Cadets of Palermo College, two regiments of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and a battery of artillery will be drawn up in Plaza Victoria.

Trovatore was sung at the Opera House last night by a scratch company, for the purchase of arms for the Ituzaingo Tiros. What becomes of all the money raised by these performances? There have been at least a dozen of them already, and all crowded, and immense receipts.

It is announced that Dr. Bernardo Irigoyen will leave on a trip to Europe about the end of May.

At the Exhibition to-day nothing was done in the way of distributing the prizes. All the children of the schools attended, and the sight on the grounds was most charming. The prizes will be distributed on Sunday.

The rain yesterday interfered sadly with the ceremony of blessing the colours of the 1st Cavalry at the Cathedral. President Avellaneda made a good speech, but we have no space for it to-day. In the Archbishop's absence, the Venerable Dean Dillon officiated.

Owing to our machine-man being taken suddenly ill on Wednesday evening, the Standard was not so well printed yesterday morning as usual: His 'locum tenens' put on too much steam and was within an inch or so of blowing us all over the moon. We have provided against this 'force majeure' mishap in future.

A clever thief knocked up the Galen who lives at the corner of Piedad and Callao the other night about 12 o'clock. The apothecary opened the window instead of the door and handed out about $50 worth of pills and potions: finally, the midnight purchaser pointed to a big jar on a high shelf and said he wanted an ounce of it. The apothecary got a ladder and mounted for the stuff, but when he reached the top rung the customer at the window shouted 'muy buenas noches,' and took to his heels. Galen, in his haste to get down, fell smack amongst a lot of bottles and pill boxes, and made such a terrific clatter that a 'vigilante' rushed up to see who was rifling the shop, and it took some time to make him understand the real state of the case.

We are glad to see an attempt to introduce proper dwellings for the poorer classes in this city, instead of the detestable conventillos. Mr. Robert Cano has built a 'Casa de Vecindad at No. 305 Calle Corrientes, opposite the Opera House. There are 70 separate dwellings in it, with all improvements, ventilation etc., at least so we hear, as we have not visited it. Mr Cano deserves well of the city and ought to be made Lord Mayor right off. He will find his speculation a paying one, and we hope he will in the end run the conventillos 'off the line' for good and all.

There is another review of Tiros and Bomberos called for Sunday next. How long is this work to go on?

A decidedly unpleasant bit of news is current lately viz, that all the gunsmith's shops in town have been cleaned out of their stock of blunderbusses! If there were any 100 ton guns on sale, we have no doubt as to their meeting with prompt sale. We don't like blunderbusses: Remingtons and revolvers are gentlemanly weapons, but blunderbusses! We suppose all the old nails and scrap iron will next be bought up as ammunition.

Several employees in the Custom House who have joined the Tiros and Bomberos have been dismissed from their posts by the National Government.

The doctors report that typhoid fever is distressingly prevalent amongst children in the city. There have been 30 cases (2 fatal) in the Merced Orphanage.

To-day is the 264th anniversary of the death of the author of the immortal Don Quixote. There will be a funeral Mass at the San Francisco Church.

Many people thought that a rumpus was at hand on Tuesday night, as at all the quarters of the Tiros Nacionales and Bomberos one of them was to be seen 'pacing his weary round' as a sentinel, at the hall door. A foreigner would, of course, have taken them for legally authorised troops, they look so well in their smart uniforms. In spite of these precautions, nothing occurred.

The Lisbon papers report the lamentable suicide of a lady, owing to disappointed love. The fact that she was 50 years of age detracts somewhat from the romance of the sad business.

The meeting at the Irish Convent, called by the Trustees, was largely attended yesterday. Nearly all the Irish chaplains and most of our Irish representative estancieros were present. Mr. E. T. Mulhall was voted to the chair, with Mr. James Browne as Secretary. The Chairman read the notice convening the meeting and the deed of transfer by the late Canon Fahy to the Trustees, and in a few short remarks explained the object of the meeting and its necessity. Mr. P. Bookey, on behalf of the Trustees, fully explained the history of their trust and the present position of affairs. The Rev. John Leahy spoke to the necessity of preserving the institution for an Irish Orphanage. The Rev. Largo M Leahy also spoke to the question. Mr Carroll concisely defined the position of the Trustees of the Convent and Hospital, and dwelt on the necessity of at once taking steps. The Rev. Father O'Reilly addressed the meeting on the necessity of keeping the Convent for Irish uses, and adhering to our traditions. Many other gentlemen spoke, and the best harmony of opinion and friendly feeling prevailed, all expressing a wish to maintain intact the Irish institution in this city; finally the following resolution was moved by Mr Thomas Duggan, seconded by Mr Dillon, and passed unanimously. Resolved, that the Trustees be requested to call on the Archbishop, and explain that the Irish people require of the community to whom this Convent is passed

1st. That they teach a superior school.

2nd. That they keep a poor school.

3rd. That they keep an Irish orphanage, and that the sense of this meeting is, that the use of the Convent be only given on these conditions.

The Secretary read a letter from Dean Dillon, regretting his inability to attend the meeting: owing to the Archbishop's absence he was obliged to officiate in the Cathedral at the blessing of the flag &c. Mr Armstrong moved a vote of thanks to the Chair, and the meeting, which held for about three hours, then dissolved.

The Provincial Senate met yesterday, and the March elections in the First Section were approved of. Something unpleasant was very near occurring owing to one Senator saying No when he was expected to say Aye.

WOOL

Liverpool, March 15th

The following able article on our great staple has come by the mail and will interest our readers:—

The improvement in business in this country has made another step forward during the past fortnight, and in our own branch of trade the movement has been a decided one. This remark, indeed, applies to many other sections of our manufacturing industries, and from every quarter we hear of machinery being fully and profitably employed. This has been the case for some months past with the cotton trade, but the improvement has only more recently reached other branches. To some extent we trace this change to the revival of the export demand for manufactures, but in a larger degree we attribute it to a genuine improvement in the position of our own people; should this view prove correct the movement will rapidly gather strength, for the volume of our home demand is immensely greater than that of all our export trade.

The wool trade has shown much animation. During the fortnight English wools have advanced five to ten per cent, and the rise of fifteen per cent., with which the auctions of Australian wool opened, has been increased to twenty; carpet and blanket wools are also five per cent dearer. With the increased demand it has become very evident that stocks of every kind are remarkably small, and the future course of the market is a matter of much interest.

Our own idea is that a momentous rise in the value of wool will occur during the present year. We appear to have reached a point where a stationary production is met by an increased consumption. To provide for a larger demand for manufactures is an easy matter, for idle machinery may be started and new erected—that is purely a mechanical operation; but with wool it is different, for the supply can only be increased in accordance with natural laws, and relief could not, at the soonest, come until next year is well advanced. In the meantime a period of scarcity appears to be in view.

The position of clothing wools is especially strong; at the commencement of a new season, with the bulk of the new clips near at hand, we find consumers from every quarter freely stocking themselves at advancing prices; they are evidently bare of stock, and we know that importers hold no old wool, and that none remains at the places of growth. A year ago, at the depth of the late depression, average unwashed Port Philip receded to 11d per lb; by the close of last year it had recovered to 13p per lb.; it now stands at 15½d per lb. At the close of the former period of depression, early in 1871, such wool, which was unfavourably influenced by the continental war, sunk as low as 8½d per lb, but within twelve months it had reached 16½d per lb. The annual supply of Australian, River Plate, and Cape wool, during the years 1873 to 1879, varied from 225 to 271 million pounds of pure wool, the average of the seven years was 248 millions; the supply last year was 260 millions, and we have no reason to suppose that the receipts of this year will show any material increase. The value of merino wools will also be affected by the decreased proportion of this particular class which is now produced in Australia, where crossing with English sheep has been largely practised; probably 20 per cent of the wool now grown is of this grade.

The production of English combing wool varies little from year to year; the value is governed by the rate of consumption. For four years past fabrics made from it have been out of fashion, and the restricted demand for them forced the raw material down to a point far below that which it reached in 1871. In the beginning of that year Lincoln wethers stood at 15½d. per lb.; in January, 1872, the price was 29d. per lb.; last year 11d per lb. was touched; to-day the value is 16d per lb. The stocks held by farmers, dealers, and consumers are, we believe, smaller than usual, whilst, in addition to the improving demand at home, we have to supply one from the United States. The prevalence of rot in some important sections of the country points to a decreased clip this year, but the first effect of the loss of sheep will be to throw a large quantity of skin wool into the market, which will prevent the full influence being realised until the clip time in June next; the loss of sheep will effect the clips of 1880 and 1881.

Perhaps the scarcity of wool is most apparent in carpet and blanket grades, and it may be noticed that the advance in price of fifty p. cent., or more, which has already occurred has not had the customary effect of drawing supplies to this country. It is probably the fact that the long period of bad times, which has affected most countries, has prevented the accumulation of wool at the places of growth which has hitherto taken place under similar circumstances, That a scarcity exists throughout Europe at present there is no doubt, and this position will obtain until the new clips of Levant and other Mediterranean wools become available from June to August. If, in the meantime, the improvement which has already taken place in the carpet trade, and the activity which exists in the blanket trade, should be further developed, another rise in value is unavoidable. Taking standard grades of wool we find that Donskoi rose from 9½d per lb. in January, 1871, to 16d per lb. in January, 1872; last year it went as low as 6½d per lb., and to-day the value is 10d per lb Soft white East India advanced from 11½d per lb. to 23d per lb. during the year 1871; the lowest point touched in 1879 was 9½ l per lb., to-day it is 14½d per lb. Laid highland was 5½d per lb. at the beginning of 1871, and 10½ l per lb. at the close of that year; it fell to 4d per lb. during last summer, and now stands at 5¾d per lb.

The Iberia's mails were delivered at 1 o'clock, the letters received were talked of on 'Change as showing the most favorable accounts sales; wools that went forward from here in sailing vessels have been sold, and as a matter of course have given much better result than those shipped by steamer. We never recollect a season of better advices for our export merchants than the present, and all purchases have proved splendid.

We congratulate Messrs Peters Hermanos on having at last solved a difficulty for the commerce of Buenos Aires, and gained a point that merits special mention. At last the Boca may be considered as a fully qualified port of entry, and the Government has granted to Messrs Peters Hermanos permission to keep a bonded warehouse or Custom House deposit at the well-known Balcarce barraca on the Riachuelo. The result is that Messrs Peters Hermanos have one of their vessels direct from Hamburg now discharging gin and other merchandize at the Balcarce barraca on the Riachuelo, a thing never before known in this market, and we congratulate Mr Edward Peters on his success.

Nothing new from Montevideo. In produce a complete paralyzation. Only 800 ar. wool resold at $f.3.70 per ar. In imports little done. Two cargoes of Catalan wine lately arrived from Barcelona were on sale. $f.500 gold sold at 352 o/o for cash. Exchange ruled steady at 51½ to 5⅜ on London and 5.44 on Antwerp. $f.1,500 Pacification, 1ª Serie, was done for cash at 27½ o/o. Banks discounting at 8½ o/o.

Mr Bacle, in his interesting Montevidean market report, gives the following:—

"The majority of merchants have hailed with pleasure the decree abolishing the control office established during the Latorre administration. This office of control has been for a long time a source of complaint to commerce. The Customs' returns for March amount to $f. 338,067. Exports figure for $f.44,692, imports $f. 293,374. The public debt and its obligations are punctually met. There has been a slight rise in the exchange market of late. Freights have fallen. The Camara Syndical of our Bolsa has taken into consideration the note from the Antwerp Commercial, Industrial and Maritime Association, referring to hides. The import market is steady. Bordeaux and Catalan wines have risen. Refined sugar and Paraguayan yerba have also risen. Pernambuco sugar has not improved in value, owing to the heavy stock and constant arrivals of the article. In all probability the tone of the market will greatly improve these next months, as the camp and litoral markets are short of stock and must provide for the winter. The political situation of the market has greatly improved. The press and the expression of public opinion are now perfectly free. All the political exiles are returning to their homes and the Cabinet and representatives of the country are all working well. A committee has been named to revise the Customs' valuation tariff. The faena of the Nuevo Paysandu saladero amounts to 65,000 animals. The Government purposes extending the Santa Rosa Railway, and arrangements are being made with Mr Warden Morrice, representative of the company."

The mails from Rio bring the following:—

The following respecting the growth of the Railway interest in the U. States last year is important—

"The year just closing has been an extraordinary one in respect to the revival of railway building, more miles of track having been laid than in any year since 1873, and probably more than in that year. The returns are not all in, but from various sources of information the Chicago Railway Age has compiled a table showing the total mileage constructed in each State, furnishing the following results:—Broad gauge, 3,o1o miles; narrow gauge 728½ miles. Total 3,738½ miles. It is to be noted that the greatest amount of tracklaying has been done in Kansas, which shows nearly 5ooo miles of new roads, while Minnesota follows with 394, Iowa with 371, young Dakota with 22o, and old Ohio with 243½, and so on. It is also notable that nearly one quarter of the total mileage, at least 728 miles, is of narrow gauge, showing that the narrow gauge delusion, as some call it, has not yet run its course."

The mail brings the following advices—

"Most of the manufacturers in the Kidderminster, Eng., carpet trade have now either issued an advanced price list or written to each of their customers informing them that they could accept no more orders except at higher rates. This action has been anticipated some weeks, and would have taken place much sooner but for an unavailing attempt at agreement on one uniform price. All Kidderminster firms are now full of orders, and it is certain that no more can be booked at old rates, while a further advance in prices, as soon as raw material contracts are worked lower, is expected.

"The Irish poplin trade is dropping into premature decay, owing to the disorganization of the Irish ladies to continue wearing that material. According to the Pall Mall Gazette, there are at present four poplin manufactories in Dublin, all of weaving only, two of which are on a large scale, working upwards of 300 hand-looms, and employing as many as 600 persons of both sexes when trade is brisk. A complaint has been often made that there is not sufficient variety in the work of the Dublin weavers, and the manufacturers would do well, perhaps, to turn their attention to a freer introduction of foreign designs. It has been often suggested that the establishment of an Institute of Art and Design, similar to those that exist in England and on the Continent, where a large collection of artistic models may be studied by the designer, might exercise a happy influence over the future of the foreign poplin trade. For the home trade it appears that literally nothing can be done."

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.
National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.
Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.
Gentlemen—I have at your request made a careful examination of the sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.
The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 50 per cent it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.
I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials
From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall. Wales—
"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."
